Putra Dairy & Deer Farm
Docile animals such as deer and cattle can be found in this scenic farm. This wide open field is a research area for ruminant animals to wander freely. Capture your memories with background pictures of the amazing sceneries of the meadow which is often used as the location for film shooting in Malaysia. Visitors can experience feeding the calves besides witnessing cow milking.

Equine Centre
One of the main attractions in UPM, the Equine Centre offers the opportunity for visitors to get close to the horses. The 4-hectare covers two stables that house 19 horses. The centre has sand paddock of international standard measuring at 45 m x 6 m, a mounting track at the field as wide as 160 hectares and a mounting track at the meadow area of 20 km. Learn and explore techniques and ways of horse grooming and care. For enthusiasts of equestrian sport, horse riding classes are also available with reasonable charges.

Human Anatomy Museum

Here is the right place to learn about medicine and human health. The Human Anatomy Museum offers 11 modules that are interactive so one can better understand how our body works and ways to maintain our health.

UPM Animal Anatomy Museum

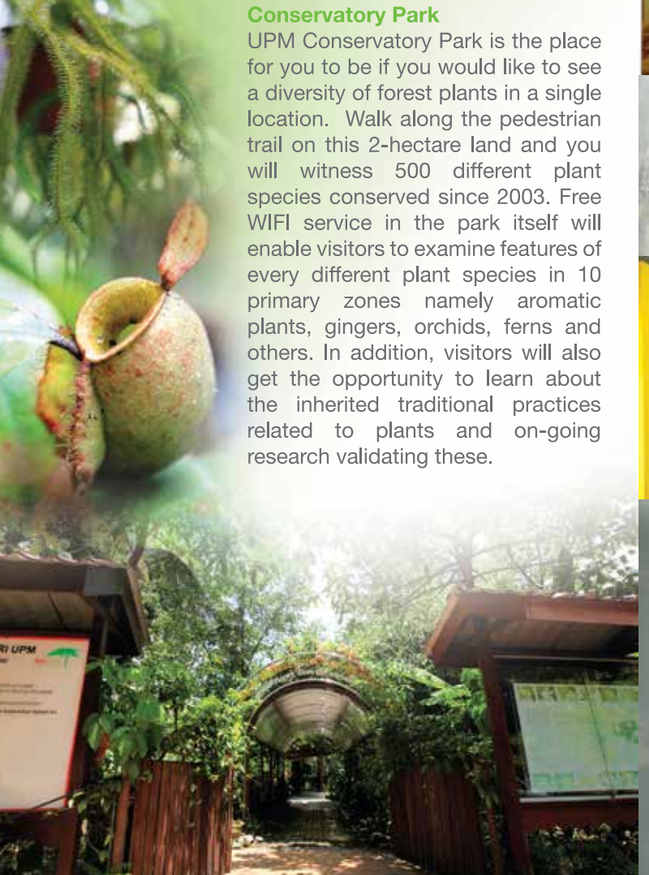
The land of dinosaur has left us centuries ago. However the search for animal skeletons/bones continues at the Animal Anatomy Museum which was established since 1979. Witness for yourself the big skeleton of a horse right to the small skeleton of a frog in the museum. You can imagine being a surgeon with the help of the interactive white board, where virtual dissection is possible.

L'apprenti Restaurant and Cafe

The L'apprenti Restaurant and Cafe are located opposite the UPM stadium, offering flavors spanning a diversity of local and international tastes. Served from a high-tech kitchen by professional and accredited chefs, the food colours and aroma will undeniably whet your appetite. At the same time, both restaurant and café are the training grounds for Food & Beverage students of Faculty of Food Science & Technology, UPM.

Putra Mart

Putra Mart, located next to the UPM Golf Course offers fresh produce of vegetables, fruits and milk from UPM farm, products from small and medium industries as well as UPM research products.



Conservatory Park

UPM Conservatory Park is the place for you to be if you would like to see a diversity of forest plants in a single location. Walk along the pedestrian trail on this 2-hectare land and you will witness 500 different plant species conserved since 2003. Free WIFI service in the park itself will enable visitors to examine features of every different plant species in 10 primary zones namely aromatic plants, gingers, orchids, ferns and others. In addition, visitors will also get the opportunity to learn about the inherited traditional practices related to plants and on-going research validating these.

Galeri Serdang

Galeri Serdang displays great and unique art creations from students and lecturers of Faculty of Design & Architecture, UPM specifically as well as students and researchers of UPM in general. The gallery incites curiosity and encourages creative thinking among visitors through artistic activities, exhibitions and public lectures by the gallery curator or invited curators. A visit to the gallery will be incomplete without strolling along the landscape trail that reflects the significance of landscapes in our life. Get exclusive souvenirs by the artists in the Gallery Shop.
